on her twelfth birthday sierva maria the only child of a decaying noble family in an eighteenth century south american seaport is bitten by a rabid dog believed to be possessed she is brought to a convent for observation and into her cell stumbles father cayetano delaaura who has already dreamed about a girl with hair trailing after her like a bridal train as he tends to her with holy water and sacramental oils delaaura feels something shocking begin to occur he has fallen in love and it is not long until sierva maria joins him in his fevered misery unsettling and indelible of love and other demons is an evocative majestic tale of the most universal experiences known to woman and man collected here are twenty six of gabriel garcia marquez s most brilliant and enchanting short stories presented in the chronological order of their publication in spanish from three volumes eyes of a blue dog big mama s funeral and the incredible and sad tale of Innocent erondira and her heartless grandmother combining mysticism humor the stories in this collection span more than two decades illuminating the development of marquez s prose and exhibiting the themes of family poverty and death that resound throughout his fiction at first glance garcia mrquez s vivid and detailed portrait of his early life appears to be testament to a photographic memory yet as he explains in the epigraph life isn t what one lived but what one remembers and how one remembers it to tell it in barcelona an aging brazilian prostitute trains her dog to weep at the grave she has chosen for herself in vienna a woman parlays her gift for seeing the future into a fortunetelling position with a wealthy family in geneva an ambulance driver and his wife take in the lonely apparently dying ex president of a caribbean country only to discover that his political ambition is very much intact in these twelve masterly stories about the lives of latin americans in europe garca mrquez conveys the peculiar amalgam of melancholy tenacity sorrow and aspiration that is the migr experience the author places the landmark novel into the context of modern colombia s violent history exploring the complex vision of gabriel garca mrquez friday s are different every other day of the week the colonel and his ailing wife fight a constant battle against poverty and monotony scraping together the dregs of their savings for the food and medicine that keeps them alive but on fridays the postman comes and that sets a fleeting wave of hope rushing through the colonel s ageing heart for fifteen years he s watched the mail launch come into harbour hoping he ll be handed an envelope containing the army pension promised to him all those years ago whilst he waits for the cheque his hopes are pinned on his prize bird and the upcoming cockfighting season but until then the bird like the colonel and his wife must somehow be fed each new volume is a biographical and critical review of one of the world s most important writers with expert analysis by harold bloom translated by randolph hogan in 1955 garcia marquez was working for el espectador a newspaper in bogota when in february of that year eight crew members of the caldas a colombian destroyer were washed overboard and disappeared ten days later one of them turned up barely alive on a deserted beach in northern colombia this book which originally appeared as a series of newspaper articles is garcia marquez s account of that sailor s ordeal a luminous narrative that rivals the most remarkable stories of man s struggles against the sea philadelphia inquirer gabriel garcia marquez in retrospect gathers fifteen essays by noted scholars in the fields of latin american literature politics and theater the volume offers broad overviews of the colombian author s total body of work along with closer looks at some of his acknowledged masterpieces the nobel laureate s cultural contexts and influences his variety of themes and his formidable legacy hispanic u s world wide all come up for consideration new readings of one hundred years of solitude are further complemented by fresh stimulating highly detailed examinations of his later novels chronicle of a death foretold the general in his labyrinth of love and other demons and stories strange pilgrims further attention is focused on gabos labors as journalist and as memoirist living to tell the tale and to his sometime relationships with the cinema and the stage reactions to his enormous stature on the part of younger writers including recent signs of backlash are also given thoughtful scrutiny feminist and ecocritical interpretations plus lively discussions of gabos artful use of humor character s names and even cuisine are to be found here as well in the wake of garca mrquez s passing away in 2014 this collection of essays serves as a fitting tribute to one of the world s greatest literary figures of the twentieth century these riveting personalities each achieved excellence but even greater than their individual accomplishments is the positive hispanic image they collectively represent to the world photographs illustrations and lively text tell the stories of these fascinating historical figures together with the late jorge luis borges gabriel garca mrquez the 1982 nobel laureate stands at the pinnacle of latin american literature his work in the words of julio ortega contains its own deconstructive force a literary power capable of reshaping natural order and rhetorical tradition in order to carnivalize the borges library and allow us to hear the voices and the laughter of a culture that of latin america this reshaping force invites us to read the works of garca mrquez in a new way one that bypasses the traditional inadequate approaches through latin american politics history and magical realism in gabriel garca mrquez and the powers of fiction noted scholars julio ortega ricardo gutirrez mouat michael palencia roth anbal gonzlez and gonzalo daz migoyo offer english speaking readers a new approach to garca mrquez s work their poststructuralist readings focus on the peculiar sign system formal configuration intradiscursivity and unfolding representation in the novels one hundred years of solitude no one writes to the colonel in evil hour the autumn of the patriarch and chronicle of a death foretold and in several of the author s short stories also included as an appendix is a translation of garca mrquez s nobel prize acceptance speech the solitude of latin america master of magic realism distinguished journalist and film critic friend of world leaders ranging from fidel castro to pres bill clinton gabriel garca mrquez improbably emerged from obscure beginnings to become an author more beloved of readers worldwide than any other living writer his plots and protean characters plunge readers into the world of fable yet their universal appeal as this biography shows is deeply rooted in the particularity of garca mrquez s own idiosyncratic early life and his later wide travels all undertaken with the restless curiosity and zest for life that he manages to evoke in his readers
